Great Britain.

THE STRAIN RAMS ON THE MERSEY.

The Morning Post says, "Some doubt has been cast upon the statement which we made a few days ago with reference to the steam-rams in course of construction at Mr. Laird's yard. We can only repeat our certainty of its accuracy."

LONDON.—Mr. Laird was informed on an undated authority that Genl. Russell had given a written assurance to Mr. Adams, the U. S. Minister in London, that these rams should not be allowed to go into the Mersey, and it is found that their construction is contrary to the terms of the Foreign Enlistment Act they will be seized as violating its provisions."

The London Saturday News still thinks that if the steam-rams at Liverpool are seized "it can only be by a stroke of fortune, or, if you like, the advice of Providence."

LONDON.—Our Liverpool Agent was informed on an undated authority that Genl. Russell had given a written assurance to Mr. Adams, the U. S. Minister in London, that these rams should not be allowed to go into the Mersey.

The London Morning Herald of the 18th, in a leader, says: "We have good reason to believe that the Government is consulting with the Foreign Office in the affair of the steam-rams, as at present, as to what course should be had in regard to them. We are informed that Earl Russell on Wednesday dispatched by written despatch a positive order to Messrs. Laird to prevent these rams leaving their yards without an ample explanation of their destination, and a substantial reference to the owner, or owners, for whom they are constructed."

DETENTION OF THE FLORIDA AT BREST.

The Paris Stede publishes a dispatch from Genl. Laird stating that the Florida had been previously released at the suit of a subscriber named Meier, who claims to be a citizen of the United States.The Paris confirms this statement, and adds that the Liberator had been sent to the Marquesas Islands, and thence to the coast of the V. B. N. Sea for purposes to run the blockade.

LONDON.—Genl. Laird granted the authority at the appointment of the Consul, Mr. Sillett, had gone to Brest to arrange the affair.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.

Mr. Cyrus W. Field, one of the passengers by the Cable, prior to his departure from Liverpool, had been sent in train to secure the services of the Atlantic telegraph cable between Ireland and Newfoundland during the summer of 1863.

Meers Glass, Ellice &amp; Co., as already stated, had contracted to carry out the cable, and Washington, Philadelphia, and New York were taken, and Washington, after several defects, had but a hand of shadow and tattered men around him.

The position of the South is indeed a difficult one, and it is not unlikely that the Southern people will be compelled to yield to the demands of the "Rebels," as the end of a like term of war.

It is asked upon what evidence and in what manner did the "Rebels" effect their capture?

Let any one refer to that document, and he will find that the principles it approves are those which sustain the Southern people the rights it declares are those which they claim, the conduct it describes is that which the Federals have pursued, and all the time they have behaved, when they compared with those "Rebels," as the end of a like term of war.
